

Miran Janezic, Stane Ocepek, Gašper Mahnič, Geodetic institute of Slovenia

Abstract

Mountain info points – Look your way

With this article we wish to show an application, which uses digital compass, GPS technology and pocket PC for navigation and more interesting view. Solution has three parts: route planning through mountain info points, GPS navigation and presentation of view information with pocket PC. In database of info points we have information about surrounding mountains. When we visit such info point, which usually has a nice view, we can get information based on digital compass.